

Alabama Newborn Screening Program DELIVERING YOU THE FACTS

All babies are tested for some rare conditions before they leave the hospital.

Babies with these conditions may look healthy.

You should let the hospital know who your baby's doctor will be and ask about the test results at the first visit.

Early identification and treatment can result in normal growth and development.

Alabama Department of Public Health Newborn Screening Program
www.adph.org/newbornscreening 1-866-928-6755